REINCARNATION UNNECESSARY? Are You Ready To Finish Life in This Earth?

Cayce said "Yes" to 18 people: Find Out Why and What Their Stories Hold for You

In this lively new experiential program, you will be given powerful insights, tools and opportunities for soul growth as you take a deeper look at reincarnation from a unique perspective.

Edgar Cayce gave approximately two thousand life readings over twenty-two years.

Astonishingly, eighteen of these individuals were told that this might very well be their final incarnation in the earth plane – why?

Edgar Cayce's grandson, Charles Thomas Cayce, PhD, became intrigued with that question - how did they earn that distinction and what could we learn from them? He has just finished researching and analyzing the material of these eighteen people -he shares, in-depth, his insights with you. There are steps and attitudes in these life readings that you will learn and practice today that make the option to finish in the earth much more accessible than we might have thought.

His findings will not only entertain you when, as a masterful storyteller, he brings these people's stories to life --including the six he met with personally-- they will surprise and inspire you.

You will leave with clear lines drawn between their experiences and your own, their life lessons and yours – and you will learn from their life journeys to create a more meaningful and purposeful life for yourself today.

Share a free-ranging question and answer period with Dr. Cayce

"I think there are several exciting keys almost hidden in this material, keys that have clear relevance to us all. They have already changed and helped the way I deal with my life. I feel certain that others will benefit from them as well."

Charles Thomas Cayce
