A.R.E./Glad Helpers'
International Prayer List

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

One of the main purposes of the 1976 Easter Conference was to present and discuss current research and thinking on the subjects of birth, death, and rebirth. Speakers included Dr. Stanislav Grof who explored these concepts related to the Edgar Cayce readings, the Upanishads of Hinduism, the teachings of the Buddha, and the works of mystics throughout history and Dr. Raynor Johnson who presented the case for reincarnation and karma through the lens of physics.

Hugh Lynn Cayce, then Chairman of the A.R.E. Board of Trustees and a well-known and loved speaker, gave this talk on death and rebirth. His extensive knowledge of the material that came through his father made him both highly interesting and informative.

Please enjoy this third installment.

In Love and Light,

THE FIRST TEN MINUTES AFTER DEATH: Hugh Lynn Cayce

Let's look a little more closely at the Edgar Cayce readings because that's where I am, as you well know, attempting to put together personal experiences with an understanding of this material. We're also attempting to compare and to work with these readings, in parallel with material from many other sources and share this knowledge as tools, as insight, as understanding that individuals can use in their particular way. It's been our experience that this is happening for hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions, of people. So we try to do it with as much decency and order as possible.

Here is a definition of death from the readings:

Death in the material plane is passing through the outer door into a consciousness in material activities that partakes of what the entity, or soul, has done with its spiritual truth in its manifestations in the other sphere. (5749-3)

In another reading:

. . . a death in the flesh is a birth into the realm of another experience, to those who have lived in such a manner as not to be bound by earthly ties. (989-2)

Apparently many of us cling to the physical so tightly that, as we'll see, it carries over a bit.

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list—creating a cooperative prayer effort. In the giving comes the receiving.

November 2018 Affirmation

“The love of God, the love of the Christ, fill my mind, my body, to a more perfect understanding, that I may be as one with Him.” (281-27)

Someone once asked Cayce: “At the change called death is the entity free of a physical or material body?” He answered:

Free of the material body but not free of matter; only changed in the form as to matter; and is just as acute to the realms of consciousness as in the physical or material or carnal body, or more so [the feelings, the emotions, the ties]. (262-86)

Matter has changed, has speeded up, but you haven't lost contact with the earth in the beginning. Many people speak of this plane of consciousness as the astral plane; it depends on which books you've read. I often say it's easy to be confused about this, because there are many conflicting terms for these dimensions of consciousness. One really needs to experience rather than just read books about the various dimensions and try to define them. You have to experience, move, travel a bit. I think what we had with Edgar Cayce was a traveler who could frequently describe in some detail what he was experiencing in passing through.

You might, in the physical sense, think of the propeller on an airplane. When it simply speeds up to a certain point, it disappears. Now you know perfectly well the propeller hasn't gone anywhere. If you stick your finger in there, you will know even better that it hasn't gone anywhere, but to you it seems to have disappeared. It has moved.
