A.R.E./Glad Helpers'
International Prayer List

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

Thank you all for your support and prayers during my absence last month. Throughout those weeks, my family and I could feel the Love and Light enveloping us. In order to make sure all prayer requests during that time are honored, we have included names given for both November and December. We will continue with Hugh Lynn Cayce's lecture "The First Ten Minutes after Death" in January.

Wishing you the holiest of holidays,

Karen Boldt
Prayer and Meditation Services

As we come together during this season of holiday gatherings, let's take some sage advice from this reading.

Then, in this era, this age of changes being wrought, it behooves the entity (as everyone), in its relationships in any manner, to impress upon others in every walk of life—not impelling by force, but by love—to try God; to listen to the voice within; to open self to the love that is manifested in gentleness and kindness, and not to the lust for power nor to what others may say, but rather keeping in that attitude which He expressed in that period of manifestation when He said, "Others may do as they may, but as for me, I will serve a living God," not one far off. Not one who may not be touched by the infirmities of those who are oppressed and cry unto Him; but when ye pray, when ye cry, that prayer, that cry, must be consistent with the life that is lived in relationship to others day by day.

Indeed man through all periods has with one voice blessed God and with the same cursed his brother. This, as the entity understands, should not be! Yet it is such in the world today that is bringing the seeking of might and power . . .

Know, even as He hath given, if ye enter into the closet of thine own consciousness and there give that prayer, that longing, He will reward the openly—as He does thy brethren. (1472-12)

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list—creating a cooperative prayer effort. In the giving comes the receiving.
