A.R.E./Glad Helpers'
International Prayer List

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

Hugh Lynn Cayce, then chairman of the A.R.E. Board of Trustees and a well-known and beloved speaker, gave this talk on death and rebirth. His extensive knowledge of the material that came through his father made him both highly interesting and informative.

In the last installment, we learned that according to the Cayce readings, death is merely a change in consciousness and experience. Please enjoy this sixth installment.

In Love and Light,

Karen Boldt

THE FIRST TEN MINUTES AFTER DEATH: Hugh Lynn Cayce

Here are some illustrations of how this kind of business works. Watching Edgar Cayce every day was like looking through a microscope that opens up a drop of clear water and suddenly it becomes alive; so it was when looking through the eyes of a psychic. Or, like looking at a blank place in the sky with a telescope and the whole thing becoming alive with stars. So experiencing the day-to-day living with this man, you never knew what was going to happen next, what he was going to say, or what was going to take place right around you in the middle of the house.

One morning he woke up all excited with this very interesting and strange story. He had been asleep the night before, he said, and there'd been a tapping on the window. He became aware of someone out there talking to him and he recognized who it was. It was a girl who had worked for him in his studio in Selma, Alabama, many years before. And he knew she was dead. But she was a very proper young lady and she was asking him to please come down and let her in at the front door; she wanted to see him, but she wanted to come inside in the proper manner. He went down and opened the door, and she was standing there. He could see through her, but she was solid enough to come in and sit down and talk to him. She wanted to know what to do.

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list—creating a cooperative prayer effort. In the giving comes the receiving.

March 2019 Affirmation

“... Quicken Thou the spirit within, that Thy light, thy love, may be manifested through me.” (281-25)

“I know I am dead,” she said. “I’ve been living with my mother and father. They keep running off and leaving me and I don’t know where to go or what to do. I was around the studio and I remembered if I could just get to you, you could tell me what to do. I’ve had an awful time. You know, I died of that illness that I had, stomach trouble; the doctor operated on me and I died during the operation. When I got over on this side I was still sick, still suffering, and I was very concerned. Then the doctor died and he finished the operation on this side. I’m all right now.” Years had passed, but it seemed like ten minutes to her. “I need to know what to do now,” she said. So Dad told her about the light, how to look for it, and how to pray about it. He said that he would pray for her and have the group pray for her, and that when she saw this light, she should follow it; then she’d know where to go.

You hear us mention every once in a while about a light that comes in meditation. And we’d better find it before we move on to the other side. We may need it, to find where to go. Because of the timelessness found on the other side, a lost feeling can be very disturbing. So we need to be able to move.

Father, we pray that those left behind might feel the peace and the comfort of your presence and release their loved ones into your waiting arms. (Theresa Cole)
