International Prayer List

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

Hugh Lynn Cayce, then chairman of the A.R.E. Board of Trustees and a well-known and beloved speaker, gave this talk on death and rebirth. His extensive knowledge of the material that came through his father made him both highly interesting and informative.

In the first paragraph, Gus Elias was a college friend of Hugh Lynn's who passed away in an auto accident and appeared to him from the other side. Please enjoy this seventh installment.

In Love and Light,

THE FIRST TEN MINUTES AFTER DEATH: Hugh Lynn Cayce

You remember that strange experience I had with Gus Elias when—because I was in an altered state of consciousness—he was apparently able to touch me and make contact. Unless we change our state of consciousness, it's difficult for communication to take place.

On several occasions after Edgar Cayce finished a reading, he would begin to talk again as if he were sliding back on that light. He seemed to stop and speak with someone who was on another level of consciousness. It didn't happen often, but when it did happen it was a very strange thing, as when you are listening to only one side of a telephone conversation. You could hear him talking to people that you couldn't see. They weren't there. And they were talking about things that were going on around them.

We heard him one day as if he were talking to my mother's brother, my uncle, who had passed on years before with tuberculosis. This uncle had been the captain of a baseball team, and—lo and behold—this was the first thing he began to talk about to my father in this altered

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list—creating a cooperative prayer effort. In the giving comes the receiving.

state. Also transmitted in the conversation we heard was the news that he had gone to the house that the grandfather was building when the latter died. This home-place had become the center through which this large family was flowing, a point of contact, a return point. My uncle was explaining that he had gone back to this house. The house had been finished and he had seen the family there. They had all gone from this house onto different paths; he knew that they were dead.

He explained that he had been able to do some of the things he had hoped he could do about the baseball team. They were winning games now. They hadn't won many before.

Strange, the patterns of the mind being built, the house being built, a symbol that they returned to, a whole large family. A transition point, a moving point.
