A.R.E./Glad Helpers'
International Prayer List

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

Hugh Lynn Cayce, then chairman of the A.R.E. Board of Trustees and a well-known and beloved speaker, gave this talk on death and rebirth. His extensive knowledge of the material that came through his father made him both highly interesting and informative.

Please enjoy the eighth installment that describes Edgar Cayce's communication with those who have passed on, both in a waking and trance state.

In Love and Light,

Karen Boldt

THE FIRST TEN MINUTES AFTER DEATH: Hugh Lynn Cayce

One day at the end of a reading, when my dad had been given the suggestion to wake up, he made the simple statement that if you, Edgar Cayce, want to see your mother alive, you should go at once to see her.

Now, there had been no report of his mother being ill, yet after he woke up, he bought a ticket, got on a train, and went to Hopkinsville, Kentucky. His mother met him at the front door. Apparently there was nothing wrong with her; yet here he was, showing up for her death—though he didn't tell her about it. The next day she went to bed. He sat with her two days. She wasn't suffering very much, just felt weak. He sat there and watched her move out of her body, as he described it. She talked with her mother and father and sister who had all passed on. She then re-entered her body and talked with her son. It was only after her conversation with her mother and father—his grandparents, you see—that she told him, "Edgar, I'm going to die. I'm so glad you are here to be with me. I have just talked to so-and-so (describing his grandparents), and I'm going with them the next time they come. Next time they come,

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list—creating a cooperative prayer effort. In the giving comes the receiving.

May 2019 Affirmation

“... May my choices ... of every nature be such that I may be led to bless Thee more.” (281-40)

I'm going to be ready.”

Then she proceeded to tell Cayce what to do about his sisters and, as a mother would, to take care of this, that, and the other; she was arranging for the transition so that when they'd come back tomorrow, she'd go with them. And she did, very quietly and very beautifully, and Edgar Cayce watched this. Not everyone can experience this, see it, feel it, or begin to know what's taking place here. According to Edgar Cayce, the companionship of loved ones seeks companionship in the other plane. As the saying goes, as the tree falls, so shall it lie.

Once someone asked Cayce, “What is meant by paradise as referred to by Jesus in speaking to the thief on the Cross?” He made an interesting statement on this:

The inter-between; the awareness of being in that state of transition between the material and the spiritual phases of consciousness of the soul. [This paradise, as Jesus called it, is a transition.] The awareness that there is the companionship of entities or souls, or separate forces in those stages of the development. (262-92)
