A.R.E./Glad Helpers'
International Prayer List

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

Hugh Lynn Cayce, then chairman of the A.R.E. Board of Trustees and a well-known and beloved speaker, gave this talk on death and rebirth. His extensive knowledge of the material that came through his father made him both highly interesting and informative.

For September and October, we will conclude "The First Ten Minutes After Death" with a sampling of questions and answers that occurred after the lecture..

THE FIRST TEN MINUTES AFTER DEATH: Hugh Lynn Cayce

Q: What can you do in aiding, in helping in the transition of a person who is dying?

A: Kübler-Ross's books, I think, would help you a great deal. She has laid out step-by-step some of the attitudes, some of the ways of handling these situations. Death, as we said, is the most common denominator; we all face it, not just with ourselves but with others. We cannot avoid it and should not, of course. It's a part of life. We have to deal with it. So, what can we do? Kübler-Ross's books contain excellent suggestions as to the proper attitudes and approaches one should take in handling persons in the dying state.

Let me illustrate and tell you exactly, very simply what I did just recently; it's one of the most beautiful things that has happened here in quite a while. There was a young man, who was in the Work-Study Program at the Marshall Hotel. A bunch of students work there and have access to all our conferences, the readings, and lectures as part of their work program. They get paid a little bit and help keep the Marshall's together, serving the conferees here throughout the spring and summer. This boy knew, he told us, that he had a brain tumor. It had been arrested, but the doctors had told him that it would start again. When it started again, he'd had treatments, but he knew he would die and wanted to come here and find out all he could about where he was going. He was a fine-looking man, had a tremendous physical body, a beautiful person, very young. So, he spent a lot of time studying, going to groups, and talking. He studied the readings on life and death; we helped him take a look at some of this material. He also, of course, studied everything he could on brain tumors to find out what Edgar Cayce had said about what was going on in him. This went on, and

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list—creating a cooperative prayer effort. In the giving comes the receiving.

everybody got hopeful, thinking we'd get rid of this thing. We were all praying for him, believing we were going to heal him, and that everything was going to be all right.

One day he came to a lecture, and death was with him. I can't tell you exactly what that was like, but this thing was again active in his head; you could see it, if you could look. I knew he was going to die. I spoke to him and asked if I could pray for him and he said, "You know?" I said, "Yes." And he said, "I know how long it will be. For sure, I would love for you to pray." He came every day, and I put my hands on his head and prayed for him. I prayed for him in light, light that he could use in this transition. We had some very interesting conversations after those daily meditation times together. Gradually he began to come apart. He couldn't coordinate, couldn't think, and finally his brother came and got him. He went home and died. Prayer, light—if you know how to work with it in prayer—talk (this one you could easily talk with because he knew and was working with it), caring, just being there. A friend whose hand you can hold, reach out and touch, so he is not walking alone. We never do walk alone, but sometimes we think we do. I did what I could, as I saw it.

Q: You mentioned how some people transcend from the physical body to a higher state of consciousness, but how would one accomplish coming from the higher state back into the physical body again? Is one guided in the same process by somebody who has done it before and guided you, or just how would you go about it?

A: You mean the birth?

Q: Right.

A: Edgar Cayce had a tremendous amount to say about the preparation. How do you arrange to get those souls in here? It takes a lot of prayer, a lot of meditation. I have often said that people who don't meditate before they have intercourse are nuts. They are missing half their life experience of a possible preparation for the coming, but it takes more than that. It's prayer, it's ideals, it's discussion, it's the preparation. Yes, the souls get assistance, but they are attracted by the ideals, the patterns, the goals, the prayer, and meditation of the people who are getting ready to have a child.
