International Prayer List

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

Please enjoy the fifth installment from Hugh Lynn Cayce on Jesus Who Became the Christ. Last month, we learned that “We are here in materiality for manifesting the fruits of the Spirit in our relationship with each other. Now and then we make it difficult for each other, but it’s still what we’ve got to do—and we need to get at it.” Thank you for being a part of this valuable service to others.

In Love and Light,

Karen Boldt

JESUS WHO BECAME THE CHRIST: Hugh Lynn Cayce

How are we going to do this? Perhaps we’ll admit it’s a good idea—but we know it’s hard, a lot of work, and how are we going to do it? “Replace,” Edgar Cayce says, it is “self applying the principles of the Christ-Consciousness” (5046-1). He states again, “Then, as we find, there should be first the general mental attitude of manifesting the fruits of the spirit as set forth by many of those in the application of the Christ Consciousness in the experience of the body. Practice, then, brotherly love, kindness, patience, long-suffering, gentleness.” (3580-1)

How do we do it? Somebody once asked in a reading, “Is any entity, living or dead, maliciously attempting to put obstacles in my way?” Obviously someone was bugging this person! The answer was, “Only so far as resentments are held by the self towards others, as has been indicated. And if such as cause hate, malice, jealousy, fear and doubt, are removed from the own mind towards others, no influence without or within may be of a detrimental force to self . . .” (2081-2)

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list—creating a cooperative prayer effort. In the giving comes the receiving.

March 2020 Affirmation

“ . . . Make us strong by Thy might . . . that we may live the Christ Spirit . . . ”
Edgar Cayce reading 281-65

Nothing can affect you unless you build the attraction for it: unless you hate, unless you fear, unless you resent, unless you persecute, unless you are filled with malice and jealousy. These attract, you see. “. . . so long as self will surround self with the thought and the ability of the Christ Consciousness, and then practice same in its dealings with its fellow man. No need to proclaim it alone—but live same, daily.” (2081-2)

Another person was told:

“If the entity will read or study or analyze how the Master treated children, young people, during His ministry in the earth, it will be seen how oft He used children, the young people, as the hope of the world, as to how unless each individual puts away those selfish desires which arise and becomes as little children, one may never quite understand the simplicity of Christ's faith . . .” (1223-9)
