FATHER, in Thy love, Mercy, be Thou near those who are in—and have recently entered—the borderland. May I, when Thou seest that Thou canst use me. (281-15)

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

Please enjoy the fifth installment from Edgar Cayce on Jesus Who Became the Christ. Last month, we learned that “We are here in materiality for manifesting the fruits of the Spirit in our relationship with each other. Now then we make it difficult for each other, but it’s still what we’ve got to do—and we need to get at it.” Thank you for being a part of this valuable service to others.

JESUS WHO BECAME THE CHRIST: Hugh Lynn Cayce

How are we going to do this? Perhaps we’ll admit it’s a good idea—but we know it’s hard, a lot of work, and how are we going to do it? “Replace,” Edgar Cayce says, it is “self-applying the principles of the Christ-Consciousness” (5046-1). He states again, “Then, as we find, there should be first the general mental attitude of manifesting the fruits of the spirit as set forth by many of those in the application of the Christ Consciousness in the experience of the body. Practice, then, brokerly love, kindness, patience, suffering, gentleness.” (3580-1)

How do we do it? Somebody once asked in a reading, “Is any entity, living or dead, maliciously attempting to put obstacles in my way?” Obviously someone was bugging this person! The answer was, “Only so far as we allow it.” Perhaps we’ll admit it’s a good idea—but we know it’s hard, a lot of work, and how are we going to do it? “Replace,” Edgar Cayce says, it is “self-applying the principles of the Christ-Consciousness” (5046-1). He states again, “Then, as we find, there should be first the general mental attitude of manifesting the fruits of the spirit as set forth by many of those in the application of the Christ Consciousness in the experience of the body. Practice, then, brotherly love, kindness, patience, suffering, gentleness.” (3580-1)

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list—a cooperative prayer effort. In the giving comes the receiving. Nothing can affect you unless you build the foundation for it.

“...Make us strong by Thy might... that we may live the Christ Spirit...”

Edgar Cayce reading 281-65

Nothing can affect you unless you build the foundation for it. You can do this by praying for others on the list, as the bible says, “...as we love one another...” (1 John 4:11) This is how you can participate in the prayer effort and help others receive healing through prayer.

Another person was told: “Another person was told: “...alone—but live same, daily.” (2081-2)
Another person was told:

"...as long as self will surround you, see. So long as self will surround you, see. . . ."

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list—creating a cooperative prayer effort. In the giving comes the receiving.

March 2020 Affirmation

"... Make us strong by Thy might... that we may live the Christ Spirit..."

Edgar Cayce reading 281-65

---

Nothing can affect you unless you build the attraction for it: unless you hate, unless you fear, unless you resent, unless you persecute, unless you are filled with jealousy and jealousy. These attract, you see. "...as long as self will surround you, see with the thought and the ability of the Christ Consciousness, and then practice same in its dealings with its fellow man. No need to proclaim it alone—but live same, daily." (2081-2)

Another person was told:

"...quite understand the simplicity of Christ's faith..."

"...as to how unless each individual puts faith..."

"...how the Master treated children..."

"...in need, but who are young people, as the hope of the world..."

"...one may never become as little children, one may never..."

"...the thought and the ability of the Christ..."

"...in need, but who are young people, as the hope of the world. ..."
