The A.R.E., E.C.F., and A.U. consider all applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ethnic background, age, sexual preference, or disability. In addition, A.R.E., E.C.F., and A.U. comply with all applicable state and local laws prohibiting discrimination in employment in every jurisdiction in which it maintains facilities. A.R.E., E.C.F., and A.U. will also provide "reasonable accommodation" to qualified individuals with disabilities, in accordance with the Americans With Disabilities Act and applicable state and local laws.

Federal laws require that employers hire only individuals authorized to be lawfully employed in the United States. In compliance with such laws, all offers of employment are subject to verification of the applicant's identity and employment authorization, and it will be necessary for you to submit such documents as are required by law to verify your identification and authorization upon employment.
