We ask for your continued prayer and support. We are here to help and to be a connection for those who need it. The Glad Helpers, here in Virginia Beach, and the community are working together to connect with each other for prayer and support. You are needed, now, more than ever, to reach out to those who may need help. The Glad Helpers can be reached at 215 67th Street, Virginia Beach, VA 23451-2061.
The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance of those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list—creating a cooperative prayer effort. In the giving comes the receiving.

April 2020 Affirmation

Mother/Father/God, we call upon Your healing presence to calm the challenges that are currently facing the entire world. We ask that You help those who have been impacted by it. We pray for a greater awareness of your presence and ask for your assistance in understanding how each of us may be a channel of beneficences to one another during this time. We pray for peace, healing, and awareness of an anger in the spirit world, earth just now.

de destructive forces in the life. For it is the spirit, the purpose, the ideal with which ye think, ye speak, ye act, that will determine what the fruit of thy life, of thy thoughts, will be. If ye sow the spirit, in the seed of the spirit of patience, of love, of longsuffering, brotherly kindness, the lack of hate— but love, love in everything, then ye will find, as He has given, He the Master, Jesus, the Christ-Consciousness, will abide with thee. He has attained the Christ-Consciousness in giving of Himself. Though able in mental and physical to lay aside the Cross, He accepted same, offering self as the sacrifice; that by grace. Then be gracious, be thankful.” (3459-1) of every race, every color . . . ” (5749-5)

“Then the awareness in patience, for this entity, is to become more and more aware of thy relationship to the Creative Forces. Do not grow anxious because those about thee deny thy faith. Only live it and be it; not in finding fault with others, not in condemning others. For as we forgive, we are forgiven; as we condemn others, we are ourselves condemned. Thus in patience condemn not, neither find fault; not condemning, not agreeing, but let thine own life so shine that others, seeing thy patience, knowing thy understanding, comprehending thy peace, may take hope. For so cometh only from finding the presence of the Christ-Consciousness in self. Then, when the entity as an individual speaks so loud there is little to be said. Others seeing will take hope and they, too, will more and more draw closer to the oneness of purpose. All do not think alike. All approach according to their own concept. Yet as others see, there is felt the influence for creative or destructive forces in the life. For it is the spirit, the purpose, the ideal with which ye think, ye speak, ye act, that will determine what the fruit of thy life, of thy thoughts, will be. If ye sow the spirit, in the seed of the spirit of patience, of love, of longsuffering, brotherly kindness, the lack of hate—but love, love in everything, then ye will find, as He has given, He the Master, Jesus, the Christ-Consciousness, will abide with thee. He has attained the Christ-Consciousness in giving of Himself. Though able in mental and physical to lay aside the Cross, He accepted same, offering self as the sacrifice; that by grace. Dear Prayer Healing Friends,
Thank you for your dedication to this invaluable service. Our prayers are with each of you and your loved ones at this challenging time.

You are needed, now, more than ever, to spread the Light into your corner of the world. The Glad Helpers, here in Virginia Beach, and across the continent, continue to pray daily using technology to connect with each other for group meditation and prayer.

We ask for your continued prayer and support for the A.R.E. as well. In a cooperative effort with our CEO Kevin Todeschi, an affirmation was created to be included in this month’s newsletter specifically addressing the current situation.

JESUS WHO BECAME THE CHRIST: Hugh Lynn Cayce

And somebody asked, “How may we have the mind of Christ?” Every single one of you in a Search for God Study Group has read that answer in the opening chapter.

“As we open our hearts, our minds, our souls, that we may be a channel of blessings to others, so we have the mind of Christ, who took upon Himself the burdens of the world. So may we, in our own little sphere, take upon ourselves the burdens of the world. The joy, the peace, the happiness, that may be ours is in doing so for the other fellow. For, gaining an understanding of the laws as pertain to right living in all its phases makes the mind in attune with Creative Force, which are of His consciousness. So we may have Pue consciousness, by putting into action that which we know.” (262-3)

“Then, He has come in all ages when it has been necessary for the understanding to be centered in a new application of the same thought, “God is Spirit and seeks such to worship him in spirit and in truth!” Then, as there is prepared the way for others that have made and do make the channels for the entering in, there may come into the earth those influences that will save, regenerate, resuscitate, hold— if you please—the earth in its continued activity toward the proper understanding and proper relationships to that which is the making for the closer relationships to that which is in Him alone. Ye have seen it in Adam; ye have heard it in Enoch, ye have had it made known in Melchizedek, Joshua, Joseph, David, and those that made the preparations for him then called Jesus. Ye have seen His Spirit in the leaders in all realms of activity, whether in the islands of the sea, the wilderness, the mountain, or in the various activities.
