A.R.E./Glad Helpers'
International Prayer List

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

This month's offering contains your observations—committed pray-ers who are part of A.R.E.'s extended prayer family around the world—true stories of healing and your thoughts about participating with us on this shared journey.

"The Glad Helpers are an energy and spiritual network that goes beyond the weekly meetings."
(M.T., Albania)

"Being part of the Glad Helpers Prayer Circle is the only place I still feel connected."
(P.H., New Brunswick, Canada)

"Committing to [praying for] those on the Sunset prayer time is also helping me."
(L.N., Glen Ellen, CA)

With thanksgiving,

THE IMPORTANCE OF INTENTION AND PRAYER Judith Stevens

An A.R.E. member called us, concerned that a man he knew was thinking of suicide. He had first contacted every church in the man's small town and no one was willing to call or check on the man to ascertain that he was safe. An A.R.E. staff member called and engaged the person in question. She asked a nearby A.R.E. Team member to call as well, and enlisted the help of a 31-year A.R.E. member in the same town who happened to be a social worker by profession.

Together this small "team" prayed for him and obtained permission to put him on the Glad Helper Prayer List. The gentleman is currently looking for a local support group and possible study group participation down the road.

A longtime A.R.E. member related this story:

While at work, she noticed her office mate was on the phone with the hospital where her daughter was undergoing a serious operation. Suddenly her colleague cried, "Oh, no! Something's happened. They don't know if she'll make it! Will you pray for her?"

Our member had no knowledge of the daughter, but she felt a strong power of intention come over her and heard herself invoke the Christ, words she would not normally use. She reported, "I saw everything in technicolor, like a movie. I saw Jesus
