I DID IT TO MYSELF...AGAIN!

Exploring Your Pre-Life Planning Session

With Joanne DiMaggio MA CHT

Experience a unique way to gain insights into ways your past incarnations and life in between lives influence you today!

Author, speaker and past-life researcher Joanne DiMaggio, MA, CHT, answers the most commonly asked questions about our pre-life planning session, which occurs in our “life” in between incarnations, and the role of this plan in the challenges we face in the here and now.

Presented from data acquired during Joanne’s exhaustive yearlong research project on the afterlife, this in-depth LIVE workshop examines how our past lives influence our current lives, weaving in Edgar Cayce’s comments about our soul’s journey.

Using a group regression to explore the past life that is most impacting you now, as well as revisiting your time in the afterlife, you will understand the role you played in negotiating your soul’s contract, giving you greater insight into who you are and why you are here.

Questions you will explore include:

- What does it feel like to die, and what does the afterlife look like?
- Who assists you in mapping out your next life?
- What is your soul’s mission?
- Who in your soul family decided to join you in this life and why?

- Why did you choose the body you’re in now? And, take a look at the tools you were given to help you remember your prior life! This knowledge will empower you to pursue your soul’s mission with confidence and purpose, as you come to realize that you did, indeed, do it to yourself and for the greatest reason of all—your soul’s growth!

LIVE online with an opportunity for Q&A with Joanne. Also available on-demand, to watch any time!
