A.R.E./Glad Helpers'
International Prayer List

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

You, who pray with us, are honorary members of the Glad Helpers—extended family members. Your prayers strengthen ours, and for that we are grateful. It is so good to be able to share with you some of the letters and calls we receive at HQ.

Someone in a dangerous situation recently reached out. We called, sent letters, and prayed. That person responded:

“ . . . knowing that I am not alone, having all you good people praying for and with me is a comfort. God willing, one step at a time, one prayer at a time, so I don't panic. God is always there. Thank you again for all you've done.”

In the coming year, let's resolve to be united and faithful in our prayers, in the knowledge that God is using us for good.

Resolutely yours,
Judith Stevens

THE EFFICACY OF UNIFIED COOPERATIVE GROUP PRAYER

Judith Stevens

In June, 1935, members of the Glad Helpers asked Mr. Cayce in reading 281-24 if their “group action” was more effective than “individual” [prayers], and if so, why. They were told:

A-1. “‘Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am In the midst of them.’ These words . . . are based on a law. For, in union [unity] is strength. Why? Because as there is oneness of purpose, oneness of desire, it becomes motivative within the active forces or influences of a body. The multiplicity of ideas may make confusion, but added cords of strength in one become of the nature as to increase the ABILITY and influence in every expression of such a law.”

Later on, the group asked if it was possible to give any advice on how an individual may raise his or her own vibrations in order “to effect a self-cure.” They were told:

“ . . . As the body-physical is purified, as the mental body is made wholly at-one with purification or purity, with the life and light within itself, healing comes, strength comes. Power comes.

“So may an individual effect a healing, through meditation, through attuning not just a side of the mind nor a portion of the body but the whole, to that at-oneness with the spiritual forces within the gift of the life-force within each body . . .

“Then MAKING self in an at-onement with that Creative Force brings what? That necessary for the activity which has been set in motion and has become manifested to be in accord WITH that First Cause [God].

“ . . . For whosoever cometh to offer to self, or to make an offering to the throne of mercy or grace, and speaketh unkind[ly] of his brother, is

January 2022 Affirmation

“Let love, life and hope be the motivative forces in my thoughts and my acts day by day.” Edgar Cayce reading 281-23

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list. This creates a cooperative, unified prayer effort. In the giving comes receiving.

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

only partially awake or aware.

“For that which has brought distraughtness, distress, disease in the earth, or in manifestation, is transgression of the law.” (281-24)

[We remember that the readings defined the anti-Christ as that which is divisive, that which separates us, the opposite of what strengthens and unifies us.]

If this sounds familiar to those of you in A Search for God Study Groups, it should. When the first Group was started, the first chapter given to them to experience and put into practice in their lives was “Cooperation.” The affirmation for that chapter works right along with the Glad Helpers:

“Not my will but Thine, O Lord, be done in me and through me. Let me ever be a channel of blessings, today, now, to those that I contact in every way. Let my going in, my coming out be in accord with that Thou would have me do, and as the call comes, ‘Here am I, send me, use me.’” (262-3)

If we hark back to the first reading given for the Glad Helpers—281-1—group members were told:

“ . . . these have that karma, that experience to be worked out together for some definite purpose other than that of self-indulgence, self-gratification, or self-exaltation . . . there are those experiences with the group as a whole where the greater portion have worked together for the common good of all.

“Then are those contacts where there was healing brought in their individual experience with the divine forces manifested in a material world . . . the group as a whole in the dispensing of an ideal as was designated in a material plane through that leading of one [Edgar Cayce] through whom sources of information may be given to each, that will assist and aid in all phases of their experience in the present . . . fitting themselves, by the one common purpose—to be a manifestation of His love in this particular experience.

“As they fit themselves in their respective niches in this ideal, this purpose this aim, are THESE—as a group—DESIGNATED as those who with an individual [or person for whom we pray] may lose self in love and service to others.”

And when we think of it, that is a pretty good definition of the Glad Helpers Prayer Groups: committed individuals who willingly join together to lose self in love and service by praying for others. THANK YOU.
