A.R.E./Glad Helpers'
International Prayer List

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

Thank you for joining us each Wednesday as the Glad Helpers Prayer Group prays for our world and for peace.

Beginning at 10:00 a.m. EST, we meditate together, then pray for everyone on the monthly prayer list. Later, we pray for each country and principality of the world, calling out each country by name. We pray for all the people and leaders of the world as we invoke peace.

Did you know there is also a special "Peace Group"? This group of committed A.R.E. members meets online with members of the Glad Helpers and Work Readings HQ Study Group, discussing Mr. Cayce's "World Affairs" Readings [the 3976 series] and praying for the world, especially Ukraine and Russia.

If you feel led to participate, please add your prayers to ours.

Contact jessica.newell@edgarcayce.org for the link and we'll see you on Thursdays from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, EST.

World Peace Begins with Me Judith Stevens

The Peace/World Affairs group began when a member of the Glad Helpers, living in Germany, brought to our attention a group of readings called "Prayer and Peace."

She found them in Volume 3 of the out-of-print Library Series: "Meditation, Part 2," originally given for the Prayer Group.

The Glad Helpers were already praying regularly for Ukraine and Russia, and this material galvanized HQ's Work Readings Study Group into action, launching an online Peace/World Affairs Group, open to anyone who wished to join.

What we found in Mr. Cayce's work was riveting:

"Hence prayer, and more prayer . . . live toward one another, as a nation, as a brother nation to the others—on either side—as [you] pray! Do not pray one way and live another!" (3976-20, given 9/27/38)

May 2022 Affirmation

“Lord of light, of mercy, of peace, create in me a pure heart:
and renew a righteous spirit within me—now.”

Edgar Cayce reading 281-26

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list. This creates a cooperative, unified prayer effort. In the giving comes receiving.

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

A year later, when David Kahn asked Mr. Cayce what conditions would have to happen before the war [WW II] ended, he was told: “This . . . depends . . . upon whether individuals, people, groups, [and] masses live as they pray; pray as they sincerely in their hearts desire.” (257-211)

Mr. Kahn followed up in May, 1942, asking if “the Forces” could advise when the fighting would stop. He was told [incredibly]: “This is dependent upon many things. It could be over . . . by the 30th of September. But this would require a united effort on the part of those who pray, more than those who shoot! And they are not ready for it yet!” [italics mine]

The reading went on to encourage an examination of one’s attitude “in conversation and in dealing with all in high and low places . . . There must be that spiritual awakening. It isn’t the attempt to force the issue with anyone.” “ . . . those in authority” should be reminded “ . . . of the source of all things . . . ” (257-244)

The Peace/World Affairs Group invites you to join us in using our Peace Group Affirmation:

“Create in me a pure heart, O God, as we join together to pray for peace in earth and on earth, that we may be caretakers of one another and true messengers of peace.”
