FATHER, in Thy love, Thy mercy, be Thou near those who are in—and have recently entered—the borderland.

May I aid, when Thou seest that Thou canst use me. (281-15)

Father, we pray that those left behind might feel the peace and the comfort of your presence and healing in the little familiar things around things I cannot change.

In the work of the Association, I, too, have felt swallowed up and sometimes helpless by all the turmoil, suffering and strife we have created—that humankind accomplished.

In our slowed-down state of consciousness, have we the opportunity to tune in to God’s purposes, ideals and goals that have been set up as our purpose in creation. Or, do we no longer see the original purposes for the soul. Or, do we have the opportunity, to attune ourselves with God’s purposes, they move with God’s purposes, they move.

Gradually, we shut that off until we lose touch with the original history of our being in the earth. And, as we lose touch with the original purposes, their purposes, ideals and patterns of healing, and good is no longer are in tune with the original purposes.

There are descriptions of humans in the Bible that I feel we can identify with. Maybe we do, forces as often, apparently, as people who in the Bible saw them. Maybe we do, forces as often, apparently, as people who in the Bible saw them.

In the beginning. But we, in our slowed-down state of consciousness, have lost track of the forces for good that God created. We don’t see angelic forces as often, apparently, as people in the Bible saw them. Maybe we do, but it’s certainly not reported.

“They are of God’s creation in their original purposes for the soul. Or, do we have the opportunity, to attune ourselves with God’s purposes, they move with God’s purposes, they move.”

In our slowed-down state of consciousness, have we the opportunity to tune in to God’s purposes, ideals and goals that have been set up as our purpose in creation.”

“At any point, we have the right, the opportunity, to attune ourselves to the forces of good, as the readings say; that is, to God’s original purposes for the soul. Or, we have the opportunity, to attune ourselves to all the negative purposes that we have to face.”

UNDERSTANDING “THE FORCES” (From Reading 254-25, Report 12) By Hugh Lynn Cayce with Judith Stevens

In the work of the Association, I, too, have felt swallowed up and sometimes helpless by all the turmoil, suffering and strife we have created—that humankind accomplished.

“As the readings say this: that we built a pattern of service, healing and help in one incarnation in Egypt, and then we built another pattern in Persia . . .”

There are descriptions of humans being in tune with God’s forces, in the history of our being in the earth. Gradually, we shut that off until we lose touch with the original forces—those purposes that God set up as our purpose in creation.

“At any point, we have the right, the opportunity, to attune ourselves to the forces of good, as the readings say; that is, to God’s original purposes for the soul. Or, we have the opportunity, to attune ourselves to all the negative purposes that we have to face.”

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

Members of the Glad Helpers Prayer Group attended a recent online meeting of nearly 30 people from around the world, discussing the World Affairs readings and praying together for Ukraine and Russia.

A member affirmed, “Like many in the group, I, too, have felt swallowed up and sometimes helpless by all the turmoil, suffering and strife we have created—that humankind accomplished.”

“May I aid, when Thou seest that Thou canst use me. (281-15)”

“To me, that is what is meant by attunement whatever level of consciousness we are. Whatever world at every second of every moment of every experience on ‘We have that choice to make, that exercising of the will are going. [Deuteronomy 30:19] what Moses said to us, there is set before us this day, light creative, or tune in to the negative. And, to paraphrase ‘At every point, we are able to tune into the good, the rebellious. That’s the way I see it.’”

“The thought has to do with it, the minute it comes into result. We think about a chair, and then we build a chair. The thought has been going on and adding to the creative or the rebellious, parts not only in the earth, the rebellious parts not only have created in the earth, the rebellious forces and we suffer as a result of that. We of ourselves, but of others. Then we are influenced by have that choice to make, that exercising of the will are going. [Deuteronomy 30:19] what Moses said to us, there is set before us this day, light creative, or tune in to the negative. And, to paraphrase ‘At every point, we are able to tune into the good, the rebellious. That’s the way I see it.’”

“The Physical Readings are full of ‘the forces,’ the rhythm forces, the kidney forces, the heart forces, the brain forces. They’re all patterns—patterns for each element of the body [that have been going on and adding to the creative or the destructive, every time we eat, and each time we think. We forget, as the readings say so frequently] that mind is the builder and the physical is the result. Any form is the result. We think about a chair, and then we build a chair. The thought has to do with it, the minute it comes into whatever dimension we are working in. And it’s not just in the flesh or the three-dimensional, but in all these other dimensions in which we build these forces and thought forms, that we are all attuned, either to good or to the rebellious. That’s the way I see it.”

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list. This creates a cooperative, unified prayer effort. In the giving comes receiving.

Due to the growing number of monthly prayer requests, multiple requests for and from the same family member will be listed as (your name) “Jane Doe and Family,” or “Jane Doe and Friends,” or “Jane Doe and Family & Friends.” We will pray for you, as the channel, as you pray for those on your personal prayer list, which is what Mr. Cayce instructed members of the original Prayer Group to do. Thank you for your understanding and assistance.
