Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

During our study of a portion of Mr. Cayce's Work Readings given through the 1920s, we stumbled upon references to the 3744 Series of readings. Indexed in one place as "Mind: Astrology," the 3744 Series was given a proper name by Mr. Cayce's Source in reading 254-4: "Psychic Phenomena Through the Subliminal."

My colleague, Mercy, shared that her study group was discussing those very readings to better understand how the mind is connected to the soul and how the will is the opposite of mind. [italics mine]

Many of you students of the readings let us know how much you enjoyed Hugh Lynn Cayce's article on "The Forces," so we are offering this thought-provoking material in installments for your consideration.

Cheers!

PSYCHIC PHENOMENA THROUGH THE SUBLIMINAL

Commentary by Gladys Davis Turner and Judith Stevens

The year 1923 saw the beginning of Mr. Cayce's Dreams Readings, Life Readings, and the 3744 Series that were given in answer to metaphysical questions dealing with matters of the mind, the soul, life after death, etc. Mr. Cayce's secretary, Gladys Davis, noted that the questions and answers were [originally] kept in manuscript form and rearranged under topics. It was only much later that Gladys numbered the questions and answers in order to index the material under subject headings. The 3744 Series forms the basis for all subsequent questioning through the readings along metaphysical lines and was originally conceived as a book.

Gladys Davis noted that Mr. 5717, Arthur Lammers, the first person to ask Mr. Cayce about past-life readings in 1923, wrote this [excerpted] Introduction to the 3744 Series:

"Lest there be undue prejudice existing in opposition to this type of information, this forward briefly presents the purpose of the material. The general tendency of people to shrink from matters of an occult [hidden] nature is but an evidence of superstition, and a lack of willingness to open their minds to receive the truth.

"It may be interesting . . . to be reminded that the greatest commonsense philosophy ever given to the world came from Socrates, immediately following a twenty-four-hour state of trance, during which his soul winged heavenward, whither no eye could follow.

"'God works in a mysterious way, His wonders to perform,' wrote the English poet Alfred, Lord Tennyson

November 2022 Affirmation

“[Our] Father, who art in heaven . . . May I fill my life and my purposes and my heart with [Your] love.”

ECRL 281-39

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list. This creates a cooperative, unified prayer effort. In the giving comes receiving.

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

in Idylls of the King. If we will but consider open-mindedly the effects of [the] unseen forces upon our lives, we will do well for our own self-development, and the development of others we contact.

“The purpose [in] presenting this material is to assist people in the understanding of themselves and the natural laws affecting their lives. There are many influences in life [that] tend to help [us] understand ourselves, in order that [we] may, through [our] knowledge and understanding, live in greater harmony toward [others].

“Such matters as Psychic Phenomena, Astrology, Evolution, etc., are puzzling the average mind today [1923]. The mirrors of nature are ever before us, if we will but use [our] senses. The reflections from the interconscious [Edgar Cayce's contacts with the universal forces] are, we believe, of sufficient interest and merit to be worthy of careful study and serious thought.

“[Humans] apparently know very little of the unseen forces, yet we are daily affected by their action. This lack of knowledge is due largely to traditional superstition and our fear of the real truth. The more we study the dynamic power of forces unseen, the more we develop toward the higher realms of thought, and realize how many things affect our destiny, of which we have little or no knowledge.”

Note: There are references to the 3744 Series, “Psychic Phenomena Through the Subliminal,” in the 254 series of readings on “the Work,” and in Mr. 900 [Morton Blumenthal's] readings and questions, expanding on the answers in the 3744 Series.
