A.R.E./Glad Helpers'
International Prayer List

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

We've finally come to the conclusion of the 3744 reading series we've been discussing for seven months, "Psychic Phenomena Through the Subliminal: The Forces."

The final question speaks of faith.

In your recent issue of Venture Inward, there is an excellent article on page 14, "Spanning the Gulf from the Seen to the Unseen." Author/ Study Group member Lora Little explores her experience with faith, against a backdrop of challenging quotes from Chapter 4, Book 1, A Search for God. We are told to have more faith in our fellow human beings, and that it is our duty to have faith in ourselves.

This article will continue the exploration of faith, using the 281 Prayer Group Readings and the now-available-in-paperback, "Expanded Search for God, Part 1,"* offering additional quotes and study material on that pivotal chapter.

Faithfully yours,

Judith Stevens

PSYCHIC PHENOMENA THROUGH THE SUBLIMINAL:

Part 7, 3744 Series, The Forces, (Conclusion)

Commentary by Gladys Davis, with Judith Stevens

(Q) Give a clear definition of the word faith with reference to faith as required by one who is sick and desirous of being helped through Psychic Readings.

(A) In what faith means to the individual, as we have faith in the substance, or that which is hoped for, with the evidences from things seen or of things unseen. As in this, the desire of the heart or issues of life to be the assistance not from self, but even as the Maker gives, as is given that love is law. Law is love. Love is giving. Giving is as God, the Maker. (3744)

In reading 281-25, (Q-10) Glad Helper Helen Ellington inquired if she had taken part in the healing services in Egypt's Temple Beautiful. She was told that she aided "those that faltered . . . after their initiation," and "in the present . . . thou mayest bring help to the experience of a soul that is scared, fearful . . . or disturbed . . . bringing help to the maimedness in the experiences of those that have . . . taken hold and yet faltered. Keep thy faith."

Another Glad Helper, Florence Edmonds, asked in reading 281-10 (Q-15) what method of healing she should use and was instructed to raise her consciousness "in the silence." She was told that confidence grows "in self in that direction." The reading went on to explain, "Confidence . . . is of the material or of the physical sense—while faith is an attribute of the soul and spiritual body."

From "Expanded Search for God, Part 1, in reading 5326-1, a 23-year-old woman asked an unusual

Edgar Cayce reading 281-39

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list. This creates a cooperative, unified prayer effort. In the giving comes receiving.

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

question of Mr. Cayce: “Are the nerves of motivation dead?” She was given a “pep talk” by the source: “If they are, may they not be renewed? Isn’t the body renewed at least once every seven years? Who is to renew it? Who is the giver of life? By pure coordination, pure faith, pure desire to be what God would have thee be. Ye have much work to do in this material plane. Don’t become impatient with self, with others. Know ye are indeed the Lord’s only as ye fulfill His commandments. Read Psalms 119 under the section Tau. Also St. John 14, especially 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th verses and then those latter portions of the 15th chapter. Apply them to self.”

A 28-year-old man, 452-3, who asked, “How can I bring the work of Edgar Cayce in harmony with my belief?” received a surprising answer. (A-5) “It isn’t anyone’s business to harmonize beliefs. Rather know what is believed, and if the results of any activity are such that there is credence given, such that it is in response to that, or in keeping with that, or in line with that, or in the furtherance of that self would present to its Maker—then it is one!”

Finally, in reading 5079-1, Mr. Cayce challenges all of us. “. . . if ye have not faith in others, how can ye have faith in God? If ye have not faith in God, how can ye find it in thyself?”
