A.R.E./Glad Helpers'
International Prayer List

Dear Prayer Healing Friends,

We often receive feedback from those who call or write us requesting prayers. Today, in a conversation with our library manager, Laura Hoff, I learned about a call she received a month ago from a distraught gentleman, tortured with the thought that he had been the Roman soldier who had killed Jesus.

She offered to add his name to our Glad Helpers Prayer list, praying for his highest good. He agreed to keep the prayer time. Later he called back and asked her, "What did you do? It's been a month since I got off the phone with you and everything's changed for the better."

By the time he hung up, they were both in tears, realizing how the healing power of forgiveness cleanses. "We are always the last to forgive ourselves," she had reminded him. And somehow, he was finally able to lay down the terrible burden he was carrying as it dissolved into forgiveness.

As a result, he became a new man.

PEACE—SALAAM—SHALOM

by Judith Stevens

Thank you, Life Member/A.R.E. HQ Zoom Study Group member, Steve Nuin, of Pembroke Pines, Florida, self-described "servant-at-large," for sharing with us the affirmation below, created by combining a Work Reading with a Prayer Group Reading:

"May we, as members of an organization that has its ideals in being of a service to its fellow [men and women]—through the grace of God which is given to all who would seek through such a way to be a channel of blessing." (254-65)

"Cast not this opportunity aside as it comes day by day; but may I, as one of His children, so live that others may glorify Him—now!" (281-17)

Longtime Glad Helper Margit Nassi-Kruger is also a member of A.R.E.'s online Thursday World Affairs Group, praying for peace in Ukraine and Russia. She shared with us the readings' thoughts on peace, and ideas discussed by the 30 or so group members who join on Zoom each Thursday from 11:00 a.m. to Noon EDT. If you would like to sit in with us as we study the 3976 Series of 29 readings given from 1921 to 1944, contact Jessica Newell for an invitation link at: jessica.newell@edgarcayce.org. We think you'll find striking parallels between those times and our times.

As we pray for peace, we try to first create and hold thoughts of peace in our own hearts, minds, and souls. We can cultivate cooperation, consideration, and respect, first in our families, next with our neighbors, then moving out to include all races, political parties, and other nations.

If we show forgiveness, offer healing, make reparation, and strive to maintain a truce, keeping the peace, we find there is no place for resentment or revenge; only peace fills our hearts.

July 2023 Affirmation

“ . . . may I, as one of His children, so live that OTHERS may glorify Him—now!”

Edgar Cayce reading 281-17

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list. This creates a cooperative, unified prayer effort. In the giving comes receiving.

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

Due to the growing number of monthly prayer requests, multiple requests for and from the same family member will be listed as (your name) “Jane Doe and Family,” or “Jane Doe and Friends,” or “Jane Doe and Family & Friends.” We will pray for you, as the channel, as you pray for those on your personal prayer list, which is what Mr. Cayce instructed members of the original Prayer Group to do. Thank you for your understanding and assistance.

“As the entity sets itself to do or to accomplish that which is of a creative influence . . . no longer is the entity under the law of cause and effect or karma, but [is] rather [under the law of] GRACE.” (2800-2)

“ . . . all must be messengers of the HOPE, the faith that is needed in HIM for the salvation of the earth.” (2746-2) [italics mine]

“ . . . Karma can be met in the IDEAL and, as a law, changed from law as penal law to grace, mercy. But this you show, this you manifest not by bragging, not applauding, but by daily living.” (5224-1) [italics mine]

Reading 3976-20 reminds us to seek equity, equality, and a correct attitude—and to not allow our hates or disputes to cause us to put aside brotherly love. “Live as you pray.” “Do not pray one way and live another.” We are encouraged to work towards a unity of purpose in a service to our fellow creatures.

An earlier reading (3976-19) reveals, “And that which has made and does make the people of America afraid, is the fear of servitude in ANY manner.” The reading goes on to point out that those who are to be greater “are to be the servants of all.”

We are to help activate hope, faith, and understanding in the minds and hearts of people everywhere, reminding us of our inter-connectedness and that, “All are brethren.”

Information from the A.R.E. Board:

[Please pray this Board affirmation with us daily]

“Surround us in our seeking to know what the Creative Forces would have our organizations do, calling on the promise that Creative Forces will abide with those [who] seek the Highest. Show us the way that aligns with the Highest.” (ECRL 412-7)
